St Giles Trust are excited to announce that we will be running a full-day awareness raising event on the topic of County Lines and Child Criminal Exploitation in partnership with the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner in Norfolk. We will be hearing from a variety of speakers with experience of the criminal justice system to unpack and explore this complex and cross cutting issue.

This awareness raising event has been developed as a response to the feedback from the bi-monthly professionals' webinars that St Giles are currently running as part of our Norfolk SOS+ Service. It aims to broaden professionals' awareness of the wider issues associated with County Lines, as well as the various initiatives that are being delivered in response.
